4. SOFTWARE LICENSES

4.1. GRANT

In consideration of the LICENSE FEES, the SUPPLIER grants to the CUSTOMER and USERS a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the SOFTWARE, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the AGREEMENT, and for CUSTOMER's business purposes only.

4.2. OWNERSHIP OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

With the exception of CITRINE, KAPPA warrants to be the sole owner of the SOFTWARE and that it has all INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights of the SOFTWARE. For CITRINE, KAPPA warrants that the INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY of this SOFTWARE is shared between KAPPA and DeGolyer & MacNaughton, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 5001 Spring Valley Road, Dallas, Texas 75244 U.S.A. KAPPA owns the COMMERCIAL PROPERTY of all SOFTWARE, including CITRINE.

CUSTOMER initials	SUPPLIER initials

The AGREEMENT does not grant or transfer, to the CUSTOMER, any KAPPA's INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY and/or COMMERCIAL PROPERTY rights of and/or related to the SOFTWARE. Nothing confers or shall be deemed to confer to the CUSTOMER any rights to use any KAPPA's INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights, except as specified in the Article 4.1 of these GLSC.

The CUSTOMER will not take any action that might impair or challenge in any way any right, title or interest of KAPPA in any such INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY and/or COMMERCIAL PROPERTY rights. The CUSTOMER will not alter nor remove KAPPA's trade names, trademarks or copyright notices and all other INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY notices or markings on the SOFTWARE.

4.3. LIMITATION OF USE

Without limitation, the CUSTOMER agrees not to modify, alter, reverse, engineer, interfere, decompile, disassemble, disclose, decrypt, incorporate other software or create derivative work of any part of the SOFTWARE or other modifications which reduce the SOFTWARE to human-readable form to gain access to INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY or CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of and/or related to the SOFTWARE.

CUSTOMER may copy the SOFTWARE and DELIVERABLES for backup purposes only, provided that all KAPPA trade names, trademarks or copyright notices and all other INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY notices or markings are reproduced.

CUSTOMER agrees that it will not itself, or through any parent, USERS, AFFILIATES, agent or any other third party: sell, lease, license, sublicense, lend, encumber or otherwise deal by all means with any portion of the SOFTWARE or DELIVERABLES. The CUSTOMER warrants that it will reasonably inform all USERS of the terms and conditions of the AGREEMENT, including all limitations of use.

4.4. UNFAIR COMPETITION

The CUSTOMER has the right to use any competitor software. However the CUSTOMER will not use its knowledge of the SOFTWARE, the DELIVERABLES, any other INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY and/or any proprietary rights of KAPPA, to develop, help develop or give specifications to improve a third party product that compete with the SOFTWARE.

If the CUSTOMER decides to develop or help develop a product competing with the SOFTWARE, the CUSTOMER will formally inform KAPPA in writing in advance and ensure that the conditions of this AGREEMENT are strictly enforced during the development of this competing product.

4.5. CONVERSION OF A RENTAL LICENSE INTO A PERPETUAL LICENSE

The CUSTOMER may convert a RENTAL LICENSE into a PERPETUAL LICENSE at any time, and will get a credit for the RENTAL PERIOD, under the following conditions:

- (a) No credit will apply for RENTAL LICENSES invoiced on a monthly basis.
- (b) For other rentals, the CUSTOMER will be credited an amount equal to the cost of rental paid in the last twelve (12) calendar months for the same LICENSE before the conversion, minus the corresponding price of MAINTENANCE for the same period.

4.6. PROTECTION KEYS

The CUSTOMER agrees not to attempt to modify, alter, reverse engineer or in any way interfere with the security provisions incorporated in the SOFTWARE KEYS and HARDWARE KEYS, and to implement appropriate measures to grant that all USERS of the SOFTWARE respect such commitment.

Replacement of a HARDWARE KEY:

- (a) Keys which have failed without CUSTOMER's misuse will be replaced at no cost;
- (b) Damaged keys will be replaced at cost;
- (c) Lost PERPETUAL keys will not be replaced. However: the CUSTOMER may acquire a replacement key for 50% of the relevant digressive discount rate; or if the conditions of usage represent a high risk of loss, the CUSTOMER may decide to obtain a key with a RENTAL (limited duration) setting and only the penalty for the loss RENTAL key (described below) will apply;
- (d) RENTAL keys are programmed to stop working after the date of expiration of the LICENSE. Security provisions neutralize the key if the computer date is arbitrarily changed, accidentally or in an attempt to by-pass this restriction. The CUSTOMER should therefore notify USERS to always check that the computer date is correct before using the SOFTWARE. Disabled keys can be reset and extended by SUPPLIER by telephone or e-mail. Should the key be lost, CUSTOMER will indemnify SUPPLIER for the cost of the remaining RENTAL PERIOD until the limit date of the lost key. Alternately, CUSTOMER may decide to only replace the lost key on the date of its technical expiration.

4.7. VIRTUAL MACHINES, CLOUD AND COMPUTING CENTERS

Installation of the SOFTWARE LICENSE on a VIRTUAL MACHINE in the cloud or in a computing center where HARDWARE KEY cannot be installed, require a CLOUD LICENSE.

4.8. MAINTENANCE AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT

Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the initial fee paid by the CUSTOMER for a PERPETUAL LICENSE specified in the AGREEMENT includes one (1) year of MAINTENANCE from the DATE OF DELIVERY.

For LICENSES under MAINTENANCE, the SUPPLIER commits to release at least once a year a commercial update which corrects all errors detected on the previous commercial version and reported to the SUPPLIER at least two (2) months before this release.

CUSTOMER shall be entitled to receive MAINTENANCE only upon complete payment of the annual MAINTENANCE fee as set forth in the QUOTATION. If the CUSTOMER ceases paying MAINTENANCE invoices, this will automatically terminate the MAINTENANCE.

Beyond this initial period of one year, MAINTENANCE is tacitly extended every year and SUPPLIER will either send a MAINTENANCE QUOTATION or directly issue an invoice. The CUSTOMER will be allowed to terminate the MAINTENANCE by rejecting the QUOTATION by writing within one month from the reception of the MAINTENANCE quotation.

Interruption or termination of MAINTENANCE does not constitute a termination of a PERPETUAL LICENSE. A CUSTOMER that acquired a PERPETUAL LICENSE maintains the right to use the versions of the SOFTWARE that were released during the active MAINTENANCE period, in perpetuity but with no guaranty that it will remain compatible with updates of Operating Systems.

Notwithstanding the statement above, a PERPETUAL NETWORK LICENSE for 'N' users, if not maintained for three (3) years will be automatically converted into 'N' STAND ALONE LICENSES, each protected by one STAND ALONE key.

MAINTENANCE is a continuous process. When a MAINTENANCE period expires, the CUSTOMER will have twelve (12) months to renew it. If the MAINTENANCE is renewed within this delay the start of the new MAINTENANCE period will be the time of expiration of the previous maintenance.

If the CUSTOMER fails to renew the MAINTENANCE within this delay the SUPPLIER will have no obligation to offer any MAINTENANCE service to the unmaintained LICENSE, even with the payment of the unmaintained period.

-------------------	-------------------

No TECHNICAL SUPPORT will be delivered beyond the MAINTENANCE period, even on versions of the SOFTWARE released during this period, and only SOFTWARE errors ('bugs') formally notified to SUPPLIER by the CUSTOMER before the end of the MAINTENANCE period will be corrected.

4.9. SOFTWARE WARRANTY

The SUPPLIER warrants that the SOFTWARE operates according to its SPECIFICATIONS. However the SUPPLIER does not warrant that the SOFTWARE is error-free.

The CUSTOMER accepts responsibility for the selection of the SOFTWARE to achieve its intended results and acknowledges that the SOFTWARE has not been developed to meet the individual requirements of the CUSTOMER.

If, within thirty (30) days from the DATE OF DELIVERY of the SOFTWARE or the release of any new version of the SOFTWARE ('WARRANTY PERIOD'), the CUSTOMER evidences that the SOFTWARE does not meet this SPECIFICATION, it will formally notify the SUPPLIER by way of written courier letter to the SUPPLIER's registered office with the description of the SOFTWARE failure to be received prior to the expiry of the 30 days period ('NOTIFICATION') and thereafter provide all such further information reasonably required by the SUPPLIER.

Upon receipt of such letter, the SUPPLIER will then have thirty (30) days to: [1] prove that there is no failure; or [2] rectify the problem and deliver a corrected version of the SOFTWARE.

If the SUPPLIER fails to do either of the above within thirty (30) days, the CUSTOMER will be eligible for reimbursement upon termination by CUSTOMER and the reference date will be the date of NOTIFICATION, under the following conditions:

- (a) PERPETUAL LICENSES: CUSTOMER will be credited for the difference (if positive) between the PERPETUAL LICENSE FEE and the RENTAL FEE for the period between the delivery of the LICENSE and the date of NOTIFICATION. In other words, the net cost to the CUSTOMER will be the RENTAL FEE for the period during which the SOFTWARE was either satisfactory or during which such dissatisfaction had not been notified to the SUPPLIER.
- (b) RENTAL LICENSES: Any LICENSE FEE paid in advance will be refunded in proportion to the amount of time left to run in respect of the period for which advance payment was made. In this case, the minimum RENTAL period described in Article 4.11 of these GLSC will not apply.

Warranty only applies if the SOFTWARE has been properly installed and used according to the SUPPLIER's instruction, and that the SOFTWARE has not been modified nor altered.

4.10. ADJUSTMENTS AND PAYMENTS

The fees in relation to the RENTAL or PERPETUAL LICENSE are set out in the QUOTATION.

The KAPPA digressive price list is based on the number of STAND-ALONE LICENSES. The fee for a NETWORK LICENSE is based on an equivalent number of STAND-ALONE users. A NET LICENSE for N concurrent users is equivalent to $[1.5 * N]$ STAND-ALONE LICENSES.

Adjustment fees for LICENSE users:

- (a) KAPPA shall be entitled, every year, to revise and adjust the fees (including MAINTENANCE fees) related to the SOFTWARE. Unless specifically agreed otherwise with the CUSTOMER, the increase will not exceed the cumulative European Union Consumer Price Index (or EU-CPI) since the date of the previous increase. If the European Union Consumer Prices index ceases to exist in its current form, the index shall be replaced by a similar index that reflects as closely as possible the evolution of the EU-CPI.
- (b) By default all prices are quoted in Euros from the reference price list available on the KAPPA website. By mutual agreement between the PARTIES, invoicing may be in an alternative currency. In this case, prices will be converted at the spot rate of the day based on the official rate quoted in the Financial Times with a quoted validity period.

- (c) Although an invoice may be in an alternative currency, in all cases the AGREEMENT will be denominated in Euros. In the case of MAINTENANCE, payment will be quoted in Euros in accordance with the indexed MAINTENANCE price or the price list in force at the time MAINTENANCE falls due. In the event that the MAINTENANCE price list exceeds the indexed price specific prior agreement will be sought from the CUSTOMER.
- (d) In the event that additional LICENSES of the same SOFTWARE type are purchased, a digressive discount will apply to all centralized LICENSES (meaning the same billing address) of the same SOFTWARE type in line with the price list in force at the time of the new acquisition. For the avoidance of doubt, additional purchases will invoke the current price list for all LICENSES of the same type and provide the commensurate digressive discount to all centralized LICENSES of the same SOFTWARE type.

Payments: Unless otherwise agreed by a written agreement between the PARTIES, all invoices shall be paid within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt by the CUSTOMER of such invoice ("DUE DATE"). All the sums of money owed by the CUSTOMER to the SUPPLIER will be deemed to have been paid, when the total amount of the sums owed will be on the SUPPLIER's bank account.

Penalty for late payment: In case of non-payment or late payment of such invoices, by the CUSTOMER, on the DUE DATE, as in application by rights of this AGREEMENT, the SUPPLIER reserves the right to apply to the CUSTOMER a penalty for late payment as stated in the Late Payments of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

4.11. EFFECT OF SOFTWARE LICENSE TERMINATION

Upon termination, as stated in Article 9:

- (a) All rights granted to the CUSTOMER under this AGREEMENT shall cease;
- (b) The CUSTOMER shall cease all activities authorized by this AGREEMENT;
- (c) The CUSTOMER shall immediately pay to the SUPPLIER any sums due to the SUPPLIER under this AGREEMENT and termination shall not be a waiver of any monies due;
- (d) For a RENTAL LICENSE, the termination reference date will be the date the SOFTWARE leaves the CUSTOMER's office by registered or courier mail. Any RENTAL FEE paid in advance will be refunded 'pro rata temporis' beyond the minimum RENTAL PERIOD of one (1) month.
- (e) The CUSTOMER will immediately return any HARDWARE KEY, delete and never restore any SOFTWARE KEY, return or destroy the physical support of the SOFTWARE, delete and never restore any copy of the SOFTWARE, and, in the case of destruction, certify in a signed statement to the SUPPLIER that it has done so. However it is acknowledged that installations may be performed on computer networks where regular and systematic back-ups are performed by the CUSTOMER. The CUSTOMER will not have to delete the SOFTWARE from the back-up media provided that the SOFTWARE is not restored;
- (f) The applicable material should be returned by hand, by special carrier (DHL, FedEx, UPS, etc) or registered courier (France only). When reimbursement or complementary invoicing is applicable, the reference date will be the date at which the material leaves the CUSTOMER's office by courier delivery. In the case of loss, standard mail delivery will not be considered as a suitable method of returning the LICENSE;
- (g) Files created by the SOFTWARE during the period of legitimate usage of the SOFTWARE remain the sole property of the CUSTOMER. For some KAPPA products, a subset of the SOFTWARE called a 'Reader' is available free on the KAPPA website. A Reader can load SOFTWARE files, print reports and export SOFTWARE data to ASCII format. The CUSTOMER has the right to keep permanently a copy of this Reader.

Nothing confers or shall be deemed to confer on CUSTOMER any rights to use any INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights of KAPPA, unless such rights are explicitly granted in writing by KAPPA in a separate agreement.

CUSTOMER will not take any action that might impair or challenge in any way any right, title or interest of KAPPA in any such KAPPA INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights. CUSTOMER must not alter or remove KAPPA trade names, trademarks or copyright notices and all other INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY notices or markings on the SOFTWARE, SERVICE and/or DELIVERABLES.

Unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing by KAPPA in a separate agreement, CUSTOMER will not have any INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY to any new idea on methodology or SOFTWARE improvement that the CONSULTANT may have during the execution of the CONSULTING. Any provision of idea by CUSTOMER to the CONSULTANT will not be considered as an acknowledgement by the SUPPLIER that this idea is a new idea and that CUSTOMER has a right or any INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights to this idea.

If CUSTOMER considers that a new idea should be treated as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, to which CUSTOMER should keep an INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY right, CUSTOMER will inform the SUPPLIER and obtain from the SUPPLIER a written agreement before communicating this idea to the CONSULTANT(s).

5.2. CONTENT OF CONSULTING SERVICES

CUSTOMER acknowledges that the content of the CONSULTING is specified in the QUOTATION. Any additional operation beyond the scope of the QUOTATION is not supposed to be part of the CONSULTING mutually agreed otherwise by the PARTIES and shall be by default subject to a new QUOTATION.

5.3. ADJUSTMENTS AND PAYMENTS

The fees and payment conditions in relation to the SERVICE are set out in the QUOTATION.

- (d) Penalty for late payment: In case of non-payment or late payment of such invoices, by the CUSTOMER, on the DUE DATE, as in application by rights of this AGREEMENT, the SUPPLIER reserves the right to apply to the CUSTOMER a penalty for late payment as stated in the Late Payments of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

5.4. SERVICES WARRANTIES

SUPPLIER warrants that the CONSULTANT(s) will make reasonable efforts to diligently perform this SERVICE in a workmanlike manner.

Further, the SERVICE includes TRAINING on and effective interpretations of test or other data. The CUSTOMER agrees that any recommendation or reservoir description based upon such interpretations are opinions based upon inferences from measurements, empirical relationships and theoretical assumptions which are not infallible and with respect to which professional engineers or analysts may differ.

Accordingly, the SUPPLIER cannot and does not warrant the accuracy, correctness or completeness of any such interpretation, recommendation or reservoir description. Under no circumstances should any such interpretation, recommendation or reservoir description be relied upon as the sole basis for any drilling, completion, well treatment, production or financial decision or any procedure involving any risk to the safety of any drilling venture, drilling rig or its crew or any other individual.

The CUSTOMER has full responsibility for any such decisions and for all decisions concerning other procedures relating to the drilling or production operation. No responsibility is therefore accepted or implied for any errors in the derived parameters or any losses arising from the use of these results either directly or consequentially. The validation and the use of the results are therefore wholly the responsibility of the CUSTOMER.

5.5. TERMINATION

Termination of the AGREEMENT before its full execution is subject to approval by both PARTIES, except for provisions defined in Article 9.

6 OTHER WARRANTIES

So far as and to the extent permitted by the applicable governing laws, all other conditions, warranties or other terms which might have effect between the PARTIES or be implied or incorporated into the AGREEMENT or any collateral contract, whether by statute, common law or otherwise, are hereby excluded, including the implied conditions, warranties or other terms as to satisfactory quality, fitness for purpose or the use of reasonable skill and care.

7 NON INFRINGEMENT

KAPPA shall defend the CUSTOMER at its sole expense (excluding fault or willful misconduct by CUSTOMER) against any and all legal proceedings, or, at its option, settle any claim or action, brought against CUSTOMER or KAPPA, claiming infringement of any INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY rights based on SOFTWARE, upon any method, material or equipment (excluding any such method, material or equipment provided by CUSTOMER to KAPPA) used or provided by KAPPA in performance of the SERVICES ('INFRINGEMENT CLAIM'), and KAPPA shall be responsible for any reasonable losses, damages, costs (including legal fees) and expenses incurred by or entitled to any sums awarded to the CUSTOMER as a result of or in connection with any such INFRINGEMENT CLAIM.

-------------------	-------------------

If any third party makes an INFRINGEMENT CLAIM, or notifies an intention to make an INFRINGEMENT CLAIM against the CUSTOMER, KAPPA's obligations under this Article 7 or otherwise are conditional on the CUSTOMER:

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable, giving written notice of the INFRINGEMENT CLAIM to KAPPA, specifying the nature of the claim in reasonable detail;
- (b) not making any admission of liability, agreement or compromise in relation to the INFRINGEMENT CLAIM without the prior written consent of KAPPA (such consent not to be unreasonably conditioned, withheld or delayed);
- (c) giving KAPPA and its professional advisers access at reasonable times (on reasonable prior notice) to its premises and its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives or advisers, and to any relevant assets, accounts, documents and records within the power or control of the CUSTOMER, so as to enable KAPPA and its professional advisers to examine them and to take copies (at KAPPA's expense) for the purpose of assessing the INFRINGEMENT CLAIM; and
- (d) subject to KAPPA providing security to the CUSTOMER to the CUSTOMER's reasonable satisfaction against any claim, liability, costs, expenses, damages or losses which may be incurred, taking such action as KAPPA may reasonably request to avoid, dispute, compromise or defend the INFRINGEMENT CLAIM.

If any INFRINGEMENT CLAIM is made, or in KAPPA's reasonable opinion is likely to be made, against the CUSTOMER, KAPPA may at its sole option and expense:

- (a) procure for the CUSTOMER the right to continue using or maintaining the SOFTWARE (or any part thereof) in accordance with the terms of the AGREEMENT;
- (b) modify the SOFTWARE so that it ceases to be infringing;
- (c) replace the SOFTWARE with non-infringing software; or
- (d) terminate this LICENSE immediately by notice in writing to the CUSTOMER and refund any of the fee paid by the CUSTOMER as at the date of termination (less a reasonable sum in respect of the CUSTOMER's use of the SOFTWARE to the date of termination) on return of the SOFTWARE and all copies thereof in accordance with Article 4.11 provided that if KAPPA modifies or replaces the SOFTWARE, the modified or replacement SOFTWARE must comply with the warranties contained in Article 4 and the CUSTOMER shall have the same rights in respect thereof as it would have had under those articles had the references to the date of the AGREEMENT been references to the date on which such modification or replacement was made.

8 CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Both PARTIES agree and acknowledge that they will be exposed to confidential information concerning the other PARTY. 'CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION' means and includes, but not limited to:

- written, graphic or machine-readable information including, but not limited to, that which relates to patents, patent applications, research, product plans, products, developments, inventions, processes, designs, drawings, engineering, formulae, markets, software (including source and object code), hardware configuration, computer programs, algorithms, regulatory information, business plans, agreements with third parties, services, customers, marketing or finances of the DISCLOSER.
- Trade secret (meaning information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique or process that is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy)
- Related or otherwise all information exchanged between the PARTIES shall be deemed to be 'confidential',

Regardless of whether such information is designated as 'CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION' at the time of the disclosure.

-------------------	-------------------

The DISCLOSER shall use its best efforts to mark the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION which is disclosed in writing as being confidential. Failure to do so, however shall leave the RECIPIENT’s obligations set forth in this AGREEMENT unaffected.

8.2. USE OF INFORMATION

The RECIPIENT shall not disclose or permit disclosure of any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of the DISCLOSER to third parties or to employees of the RECIPIENT, other than directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents who are required to have the information in order to use the SOFTWARE LICENSE and/or the SERVICE. Accordingly, the RECIPIENT agrees that prior to any of its directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents, being given access to the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, the RECIPIENT will procure and will undertake that each of its directors, officers, employees, consultants, AFFILIATES or agents shall comply with the terms of this AGREEMENT.

The RECIPIENT agrees that it shall take all reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of and avoid disclosure or use of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of the DISCLOSER in order to prevent it from falling into the public domain or the possession of persons other than those persons authorized under this AGREEMENT to have any such CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. Such measures shall include, but not be limited to, the highest degree of care that the RECIPIENT utilizes to protect its own CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of a similar nature, which shall be no less than reasonable care.

The RECIPIENT agrees to notify the DISCLOSER in writing of any actual or suspected misuse, misappropriation or unauthorized disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of the DISCLOSER which may come to the RECIPIENT’s attention.

8.3. EXCEPTION OF NON DISCLOSURE

Notwithstanding the provisions of this AGREEMENT, the RECIPIENT shall have no liability to the DISCLOSER with regard to any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of the DISCLOSER, which the RECIPIENT can prove was:

- (a) in the public domain at the time it was disclosed or has entered the public domain through no fault of the RECIPIENT;
- (b) known to the RECIPIENT, without restriction, at the time of disclosure, as demonstrated by files in existence at the time of disclosure;
- (c) disclosed with the prior written approval of the DISCLOSER;
- (d) independently developed by the RECIPIENT without any use of the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of the DISCLOSER and by employees of the RECIPIENT who have not had access to the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, as demonstrated by files created at the time of such independent development;

SUPPLIER guarantees that the CONSULTANT, whether a SUPPLIER employee or an independent consultant, is legally entitled to perform the SERVICE and is personally covered for medical insurance and repatriation. In the event that the CONSULTANT needs to be hospitalized as a matter of urgency and in the event there is no health center nearby the CUSTOMER premises or if the health center is not in compliance with the emergency requirements, the CUSTOMER accepts to allow the CONSULTANT access to its private health center if there is a health center in the CUSTOMER's premises. This AGREEMENT is made on an assessment of the risks to SUPPLIER and CUSTOMER personnel in good faith and based on best knowledge at the time of offer of the AGREEMENT. Both PARTIES accept that circumstances may change or more information may come to light that may change this risk assessment and that ultimately it is the decision of the CONSULTANT due to perform said SERVICE that shall override both SUPPLIER and CUSTOMER in the decision to travel to the location of the SERVICE.
